SNOW SHOENING

Bill Hauda (hauda1@hughes.net) will attempt to resurrect the SAS snowshoe group, a very successful group activity until being devastated by past Covid gathering restrictions.

If you are interested make sure you get email contact information to Bill. First step is to create a SAS snowshoe contact list.

If you have already indicated interest and it is reflected in the SAS membership directory please confirm with a response to Bill, email address above.

If a more recent member please confirm your interest to Bill by replying to this notice and we will trek some local trails together.

JANUARY BOWLING

This month we'll be bowling on January 9th and 23rd at 1:30 as usual.

On Monday, Jan. 9, we'll be at Schwoegler's on Grand Canyon Dr. They've done some remodeling and it's a fun venue.

On Monday, January 23rd, we'll be at Bowl-A-Vard, 2121 E. Springs Dr., out by East Towne.

All of us are amateurs...well, all except one, and it's great fun to watch a "pro" SAS member bowl with us on occasion. We're hoping to see some new members join in.

Shoes and bowling balls are available at the alleys (small fee for shoe rental). Please contact Georgine with any questions, 608-513-7658.
